LONG TABLE LUNCH

@ Small Farm Field Day & Honey Festival

Itinerary 26. May 2019

Tour Highlights:

Garbin Estate Wines

The Swan Valley's best kept bubbly secret. This is a family run business with Peter and Katrina behind the wine label and their two sons Joel and Adam also lend a hand. Peter's father started the vineyard in 1956 after migrating from Europe. The family produces a range of boutique premium varietal wines, bottle fermented sparkling wines and fortifieds from their Swan Valley and Gingin vineyard.

SaxonBee Enterprises

SaxonBee Enterprises is the largest supplier of Australian bee pollen. Established in 1990, the Western Australian family owned and operated business produces pollen of the highest standard including the certified organic bee pollen. SaxonBee is currently servicing the Australian markets and exporting to USA & Asia.

Small Farm Field Day & Honey Festival

Countryman Gidgegannup Small Farm Field Day is the place where those living and working on small farms in the agricultural sector can come together at the one time to view and compare from a selection of products and services designed for efficient farming and rural practices. This year the Honey Festival is joining with amazing demonstrations of all things bees and honey, whether you just have an interest in bees or would like to get a hive this is an event you don't want to miss!

Slow Food, Swan Valley and Eastern Region, Long Table Lunch

Our Swan Valley based, Slow Food Convivium, is a group of Western Australian members, interested in sharing the philosophy of GOOD, CLEAN and FAIR food and in being connected to a sustainable, bio-diverse food community. This year's Long Table Lunch is joining forces with the Honey Festival and using honey in every course – get excited and surprised by the talented Slow Food Chefs, using only best products from local producers.

A variety of Garbin Estate wines & sparklings as well as 14K Brewery's healthy soft drinks are available to purchase at the lunch.
